

Peleg Erlich, Member of the Board of the FTTH Council Europe.

Peleg Erlich is a Member of the Board of Directors of the FTTH Council Europe. He is currently leading the FTTx products line at ECI Telecom. He is bringing over 14 years of experience in the telecommunications industry and semiconductor. Prior to joining ECI he was a Senior Director in iamba Networks, where he led the Product Management and Marketing activity (until it was acquired by Marvell), before he was a Director of product management in BroadLight leading the GPON product line. Prior to that he held several senior R&D positions in Orckit communications. Peleg holds an MBA from Herriot-Watt University and a B.Sc. Electronic Engineering(Cum Laude) from RMIT University in Australia.

Synopsis

- FTTH Worldwide: Global Ranking and Analysis
- FTTH in Europe: market status
- Analysis of situation in Eastern Europe
- Analysis of situation in European "FTTH Countries"
- Discussion for reasons why Europe is lagging behind
- Market Forecast for FTTH