IET Journals Packages are designed to offer you greater value and flexibility in accessing IET content. All 2018 journals packages include an online version of the journal enabling multi user access at no additional cost. This means users can access the most up-to-date research as soon as articles are accepted, in advance of issue publication. In addition, with an IET Journals Package you will save 20% on the list price for individual titles – offering you comprehensive engineering content at great value. For our Corporate customers, we recognise that your requirements may differ from the packages created. Do contact us for a specific quotation based on your audience and content needs.
