Engineering Council Fees

To retain your professional registration status you will also need to backdate your Engineering Council fees to the year following your last payment, in addition to your current year. If you have allowed your Engineering Council registration to lapse for more than three years you will be required to demonstrate your competence through a Professional Review including completion of an application form and attendance at an interview. Please download the relevant form from the website www.theiet.org/membership/profreg. The grid below states the EC fee amount in total that you need to pay depending on when your registration lapsed. If you are unsure when you last paid, please call +44 (0)1438 765678.
