

Volunteering role	Registration Assessor
Role synopsis and primary focus	As a Registration Assessor you'll be assessing applicants, as part of the professional review process for Chartered Engineer (CEng) and Incorporated Engineer (IEng).
Person requirements	You'll need to be an IET member and professionally registered with the Engineering Council as either CEng or IEng.
What you can gain from this role	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Further develop your teamwork and communication skills. • Positively contributing to the careers and development of other engineers. • Meet people from different sectors and industries, helping you to build your network and keep up to date in the engineering and technology environment. • Volunteering contributes towards your CPD and can be logged as part of your CPD activities.
Main duties and responsibilities	There are two reviews of documentary evidence as part of the Professional Review Process. You'll serve on a panel: Pre-Professional Review Interview (PRI) Assessment (usually two Assessors and one Moderator), you'll: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review the documentary evidence (which may be more than the application). • Advise the Moderator of their assessment of the written evidence, using judgement based on expert knowledge of the applicant's industry and UK- SPEC. • Hear and understand the opinions of the other Assessors and assist the Moderator with consensus when necessary. • Where an applicant's qualification is not a UK-SPEC recognised qualification, or clear equivalent, consider how the evidence demonstrates the applicant's Underpinning Knowledge and Understanding (UK&U) required for the category they are applying for. • Identify and recommend any additional evidence required to support the application. Post-Professional Review Interview (PRI) Assessment (usually one Assessors and one registrar), you'll: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review the documentary evidence. • Consider if process has been fair and rigorous (where required ask Registrar to seek clarification on Interviewer Comments) • Make final decision on application.

	General Registration Assessor's must adhere to the IET's data protection policy throughout all processes.
How this role supports our vision and mission	Registration Assessors Inspire, Inform and Influence our Practitioner, Academia, Industry and Society audiences. This role is inspiring the next generation of engineers and technicians. It's supporting our Engineering Excellence theme by playing a key role in supporting our members to gain registration.
Period of appointment	Appointment is continuous, as long as the required training remains up to date.
Time Commitment	To ensure currency in the role, you will need to commit to a minimum of five days assessing activity per year. You'll also need to attend an initial training session and then a revalidation session every three years.
Appointment method	Complete and submit the Volunteer Form. Once your form has been reviewed you will receive confirmation of your appointment, along with the relevant next steps.
Induction	Upon engagement you will be provided with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All IET Volunteers are required to read/sign our Volunteer Code of Conduct and a set of legislation-related policies and complete a Safeguarding training module. This mandatory activity is undertaken through a web-based e-learning system. • Volunteers' Handbook • Access to IET EngX® online volunteering community • Other volunteer policies and guidance are provided on IET EngX®
Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance at a Registration Assessor training session • Mandatory revalidation training every three years.
Point of contact	The regular contact for this role will either be the Volunteering, Training and Development team Apply to become a Registration Assessor To apply for the above please complete our short form

Registration Assessor

Updated: September 2025